

The Association of Regional Center Agencies is pleased to announce our second webinar, hosted in collaboration with The Arc California on social recreation and camp services! This event is for people served by regional centers and their families who want to learn more about these service options.

How inclusive social recreation and camp programs can benefit you!

This event is set for Tuesday, June 28th, from 2-3pm. We'll be talking about inclusive social recreation and camp and how to start a conversation with your service coordinator about accessing these services.
